READ—

Rule XIV of the Mysore Civil Service Rules issued with Government Order No. G. 8139--G. M. 12-06-68, dated the 27th June 1907.

2. Also Government Proceedings No. 3147-85—G. M. 22-08-24, dated the 24th November 1908, increasing the cadre of Assistant Commissioners by two.

No. G. 3613—G. M. 42-09-41, DATED BANGALORE, the 12TH JANUARY 1910.

ORDER THEREON.—Under the orders read above, the cadre of Assistant Commissioners consists of 75 officers (permanent and probationary), of whom 66 are for actual charges and 9 to form a reserve for short deputations, absence on leave and on account of probationers under training. In addition to the 66 charges above referred to, certain special appointments* are now held by Assistant Commissioners in the way of prolonged deputations. The provision in Rule XIV (3) of the Rules of 27th June 1907 for filling the places of these officers sub pro tem has led to officers being kept on as sub pro tem for long periods of time. These appointments, if added to the cadre, would give 72 as the number of charges to be provided for.

*1. Registrar of Co-operative Societies.
2 & 3. Municipal Vice-Presidents of Bangalore and Mysore.
4. Special Magistrate, Kolar Gold Fields.
5. Officer in charge of Palace Establishments.
6. Assistant Commissioner on special duty with His Highness the Maharaja.

2. In regard to the reserve also, it is observed that, on the 1st January 1910, there were six probationers in Schedules A and B together, of whom one was entitled to confirmation. The other five are not yet fully qualified for confirmation but almost all of them have had to be placed in regular charges with the risk of prejudice alike to the work and to the men themselves who have thereby to devote to active duty the time which they are expected to devote to learning their duties and qualifying themselves for regular work. There were also nine officiating Assistant Commissioners taken from the ranks of Munsiffs, Amildars and legal practitioners. Thus there were fourteen officers, not permanent Assistant Commissioners, doing the duty for which a reserve was contemplated, while there was only one officer, and that a probationer, actually in reserve unattached. It has thus become clear that the number of men fixed for the reserve in the Government Order of 27th June 1907 is not sufficient.

3. Besides the nine appointments held by the nine acting Assistant Commissioners, there are at present three posts intended for Assistant Commissioners which are held by officers who are not Assistant Commissioners. Two of these officers are, however, due to retire shortly.

4. Having regard to these circumstances, it follows that the number of Assistant Commissioners (including probationers) should be increased by the number of Assistant Commissioners on prolonged deputation, referred to in para 1 supra, namely six, and by filling up the places now kept vacant against the two outside officers referred to in para 3 supra.

5. Two existing vacancies in the number of permanent Assistant Commissioners also require to be filled by the appointment of the two candidates who passed at the top of the list in the competitive examination held in November last.

General Miscellaneous, dated 12th January 1910.

6. To fill up nine of these ten places, the following appointments have been made and notified separately:—

1. Mr. T. G. Rama Iyer, B.A. 2. Mr. B. T. Kesaviengar, B.A.	As Probationary Assistant Commissioners, Schedule A, under Rule II (1) of the Civil Service Rules of 27th June 1907.
3. Mr. Abdul Wajid, B.A. 4. Mr. H. V. Ramaswami, M.A., B.L.	As Probationary Assistant Commissioners, Schedule B, under Rule II (2) (b).
5. Mr. M. Lakshmana Sastri, B.A. 6. Mr. A. Krishnaswami Iyengar, B.A. 7. Mr. T. E. Jayarama Iyer, B.A., B.L. 8. Mr. S. Hiriyanniah, M.A., B.L. 9. Mr. C. S. Kuppuswamiengar.	As Assistant Commissioners, Schedule B, under Rule II (2) (a).

7. Mr. Mahomed Obeidulla will continue as Officiating Assistant Commissioner pending his completing the prescribed tests, as he is already officiating and may not be appointed probationer under the rules.
